

Ronnie Maslowski passed into eternal life on Tuesday, Jan. 26, 2016 in Meriden, Conn., at the age of 69. Her suffrage in life was painlessly ceased while she was in the comfort of love, prayer, laughter, and tears of her family and friends here and afar.

She was born on July 6, 1946 in New Britain, Conn. to Veronica (Veluntuckonis) and Harold Moss. She graduated parochial high-school at St. Thomas Aquinas, also in New Britain, Class of 1964. She became a paralegal for Hoppin, Carey, and Powell in Hartford.

She was the wife of Ronald J. Maslowski, and remained married to him all the days of her life for the following 40 years.

In the summer of 2003, began working at Target, of Meriden, and stayed a loyal and honorable employee for the rest of her working days. For 20 years prior, she was also co-owner of Take 1 Video, Inc. in Meriden. She treasured these memories, and will never forget them, ever.

Besides her husband, she leaves behind and is survived by all those whom she cherished, loved, and was grateful for having in her life: Her daughter, Alycia D. Maslowski-Lyons; her two granddaughters, Ashley Anne and Emily Lynn Lyons; her husband's sister and friend, Susan and her husband, Alan Rindfliesh; her mother, Veronica T. Moss; and countless extended family and friends here in Connecticut and throughout the United States, who brightened and lit her journey along the way. She loves us all.

She is predeceased by her father-in-law and mother in-law, Peter J. and Dorothy B. Maslowski; her father and brother, respectively, Harold C. Moss Senior and Junior; and also her beloved son, Peter J. Maslowski, all of Connecticut.

A small graveside ceremony will be held in the spring at St. Boniface Cemetery when conditions allow. Inquiries and details will be posted on the Internet at her family's earliest opportunity.

In lieu of gifts and flowers, her family wishes that contributions in her name be made to the Fidelco Foundation, Connecticut Audubon Society, or the American Cancer Society - See more at: <http://www.legacy.com/obituaries/record-journal/obituary.aspx?n=veronica-ann-maslowski&pid=177521591&fhid=6833#sthash.FDt7pjBO.dpuf>
